

Catherine, Called Birdy: FINAL EXAMINATION

WHAT IS THE MEANING OF?

Page 17:

“Little Bird, in the world to come, you will not be asked ‘Why were you not George?’ or ‘Why were you not Perkin?’ but ‘Why were you not Catherine?’”

Page 104-105 / 106:

“You are lucky, Little Bird, for you have wings. But you must learn to master them. Look at the baron’s hawk there on her perch. Just because she doesn’t flap her wings all the time doesn’t mean she can’t fly.”

“But, my dear,” she went on, “I flap my wings at times, choose my fights carefully, get things done, understand my limitations, trust in God and a few people, and here I am. I survive, and sometimes even enjoy.”

Page 108:

When I was little, I used to try to capture the colored light. I thought I could hold it in my hand and carry it home. Now I know it is like happiness--It is there or it is not, you cannot hold it or keep it.
